The International Scout and Guide Fellowship (ISGF) is an independent organisation for adults.

2. Admission of adults

The ISGF through membership of a National Scout and Guide Fellowship (NSGF) or the Central Branch (CB) is open to former and present adult members of the Member Organisations of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS) and the World Organisation of the Scout Movement (WOSM) and to adults who did not get the opportunity to be Scouts/Guides at an early age or to be active Scout/Guide leaders, but are now willing to subscribe to the values of Scouting and Guiding.

ARTICLE 2

Principles

The Principles of the ISGF are to:

- a) respect life and human rights;
- b) contribute to international understanding especially through friendship, tolerance and respect for others;
- c) work for justice and peace in order to create a better world.

ARTICLE 3

Aims and Objectives

1. Aims

The Aims of the ISGF are to encourage its members to:

- a) personally keep alive the spirit of the Promise and Law as laid down by Lord Robert Baden-Powell, Founder of the Scout and Guide Movement, in a process of continuous personal development;
- b) bring that spirit into the communities in which they live and work through active service to them;
- c) actively support the WAGGGS and WOSM member organisations in these communities, in their countries and worldwide.

2. Objectives

The Objectives of the ISGF are to:

- a) establish liaison and co-operation between its Member Organisations, hereinafter called "National Scout and Guide Fellowships (NSGF)";
- b) encourage the founding of a NSGF in any country where no such organisation exists;
- c) promote friendship amongst its members throughout the world.

ARTICLE 4

Emblem and flag

1. Emblem

The ISGF Emblem is a red Scout fleur-de-lys bearing two white stars on a white Guide trefoil. A black or blue key-line surrounds both fleur-de-lys and trefoil. All copyright and other intellectual property rights, together with any goodwill relating to it, belong to the ISGF. The Emblem forms part of the Constitution.

2. Flag

The ISGF flag consists of the Emblem, without key-line, on a field of blue.

ARTICLE 5 Membership

1. Requirements for Membership

Membership of the ISGF is open to all national adult organisations which fulfil the criteria and conditions for Membership. Authority to confer such Membership is vested in the World Conference.

2. Categories of Membership

There are two categories of Membership of the ISGF:

- a) Full Membership;
- b) Associate Membership.

3. Criteria and conditions for Full Membership

A Full Member of the ISGF is a national adult organisation which:

- a) adopts and adheres continuously to the Principles, Aims and Objectives of the ISGF as laid down in this Constitution;
- b) is open to all adults regardless of race, gender, nationality and creed;
- c) adopts a simple and effective organisational structure based on democratic principles;

4. Structure of a Full Member

A Full Member of the ISGF may be either an independent organisation or a section of a Scout and/or Guide national organisation, provided all criteria and conditions laid down in paragraph 3 of this article are fulfilled. In the second case, however, the section should have separate structures and enjoy its autonomy, including in the financial field.

5. Single associations and federations

A NSGF may consist of one or more associations. If it consists of more than one association the constituent associations must form a federation or similar link, which will be recognised as the NSGF, subject to verification of the criteria and conditions as stated above. It is the responsibility of the federation or equivalent to ensure that all its constituent associations meet the requirements of the ISGF Constitution.

6. One NSGF per country – Exceptions

In principle only one NSGF from any one country shall be recognised by the ISGF. However, where for various reasons it is impossible to have a single association or a federation as provided by paragraph 5 of this article, the World Committee may recommend that two NSGFs be formed, one based on former members of a WAGGGS Member Organisation and the other on former members of a WOSM Member Organisation.

7. Criteria and conditions for Associate Membership

An Associate Member of the ISGF is a national adult organisation which fulfils the criteria and the conditions laid down in paragraphs 3 to 5 of this article, except that, in relation to clause d) of paragraph 3, the minimum period of operation at national level is one year and, in relation to clause f) of the same paragraph, the minimum required is 60 members.

8. Submitting the Constitution

If the NSGF is a federation it is the responsibility of the federation to send a copy of each of the concerned constitutions to the ISGF World Bureau. If the NSGF is a section of a WAGGGS and/or WOSM Member Organisation, the constitution to be submitted is that of the WAGGGS and/or WOSM Member Organisation, together with the constitution or bye-laws of the NSGF itself if such exists.

9. Responsibilities and rights of Full Members

Full Members' responsibilities and rights are to:

11. Change of entity

If a change occurs affecting the entity of a NSGF, the organisation emerging from the change shall replace the former NSGF, subject to verification of its compliance with the criteria and conditions laid down in paragraph 3 of this article. The new NSGF shall, from the moment it is deemed acceptable by the World Committee, assume the Membership of the NSGF it replaces. This decision shall be submitted to the following World Conference for ratification.

The World Conference has the authority to decide the appropriate course of action to be taken. A decision to cancel the Membership of an Organisation requires a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by secret ballot.

2. Resignation

A NSGF may resign from the ISGF by written notice addressed to the Secretary General.
